Preface

Following the successful exhibition of "Sex for Vanity", this is a timely presentation of the complete triptych that makes up Sesso Sbagliato by talented emerging Italian artist Claudio Gobber.

Influenced by the masterful works of European cubists, notably Picasso and Schweizer, Gobber's artistic journey is a harmonious blend of reverence for tradition and a fearless confrontation of the values he witnesses in modern society. The bold and carnal manner in which this trio of portraits represents the human form creates a distinctive and audacious artistic style that resonates with viewers on a profound level.

The brush strokes, the colour the robust and dominant forms command immediate attention, but also require contemplation, transcending the surface to explore the intricate layers of human emotion and societal dynamics.

This triptych is an evocative work, studying sex and love in modern western society. It challenges us to examine our preconceptions, prompting us to reconsider our perceptions of sensuality, vulnerability, and the complexities of human connection. With each painting, a new layer of meaning unfolds, allowing us to reflect on our shared human experience.

Introduction

Unveiling the Human Tapestry: The Complexities of Modern Sexuality Explored Through Paintings

In a world where human sexuality is a kaleidoscope of intricate emotions, desires, and societal influences, art becomes a powerful medium to capture the essence of our multifaceted relationships with sex. It is within this vibrant tapestry of human experience that a series of thought-provoking paintings emerges, delving into the depths of sex for vanity, sex for porn, and sex for pregnancy. This essay aims to unravel the intricate threads woven through these paintings, shedding light on the complex interplay between biology, psychology, and society that shape our modern understanding of sex.

Section 1: Sex as a Social Construct

Human sexuality, unlike that of other animals, is heavily influenced by social constructs. Our evolution as a species has ushered in a cultural landscape that molds our perceptions of sex. From the pursuit of validation and self-image in sex for vanity, to the detached fantasy realms of sex for porn, and the biological imperative of sex for pregnancy, these paintings expose the different lenses through which we navigate the intricate maze of human desire.

Section 2: Exploring Sexuality Beyond Reproduction

While animals predominantly engage in sexual activities for procreation, humans have evolved to experience sex on a broader spectrum. The concept of sex for vanity challenges the notion of purely reproductive motivations, instead emphasizing the human desire for validation and personal gain. It reflects the way societal pressures and the commodification of beauty influence our sexual experiences, making us question the authenticity and depth of these encounters.

Section 3: The Shadows of Fantasy

Sex for porn takes us into a realm where the lines between reality and fiction blur. In this hypersexualized world, detached from emotional connection, the focus shifts to visual stimulation and arousal. These paintings beckon us to reflect on the impact of pornography on our perceptions of sex, the objectification of bodies, and the potential consequences of seeking satisfaction solely through a distorted lens of fantasy.

Introduction

Section 4: Love and Intimacy

At the heart of human sexuality lies the delicate interplay between sex and love. While these paintings explore the diverse motivations behind sexual encounters, they remind us that fulfilling sexual experiences often intertwine with emotional connection and intimacy. Love manifests itself as a fundamental aspect of our relationships, encompassing a deeper bond that extends beyond the physical act of sex.

Conclusion:

In this artistic journey through the intricacies of human sexuality, these captivating paintings challenge our preconceived notions and invite us to ponder the evolving landscape of sex. They provoke us to question the impact of societal constructs, the allure of fantasy, and the eternal dance between love and physical desire. By venturing into this realm, we open ourselves to a deeper understanding of our own sexuality and a more compassionate appreciation of the diverse experiences that shape our collective humanity.

In the realm of these paintings, we bear witness to the triumphs and pitfalls of modern sexual dynamics. They serve as a testament to the profound and complex nature of our intimate connections, unveiling the human tapestry with all its intricate hues. Through art, we embark on a profound exploration of the self and society, engaging in a dialogue that challenges us to reflect, learn, and grow in our understanding of the beautiful enigma that is human sexuality.

SEX FOR PROCREATION

SEX FOR PORN

SEX FOR VANITY

Between Love and Lust

A Troubled Tapestry

In a world of tangled desires, I shall speak,
Of the intricate tapestry where problems ferment.
Where sex, once a union of hearts and souls,
Now divides, distorts, and taxes us.

Our sacred sex once pure, for a new life's stake.
But now, burdened by pressures and calculations,
It becomes a duty, devoid of celebrations.
The joy of intimacy lost in a race against time,
Conceiving, not connecting, becomes the dance.

Then sex for vanity alone, with no lasting gain.
Adorned with masks, seeking fleeting desires,
Physicality reigns, while love slowly wilts.
A mirage of ecstasy, a hollow embrace,
Leaving hearts empty, souls longing for dignity.

Alas, the final fall is pornography's disgrace.
A seductive force, that distorts and deceives,
Twisting perceptions, obscuring what love truly bestows.
In its clutches, the lines between real and fake blur,
Replacing intimacy with dazzling pixels.

So let us remember when sex melds with love,
We can create the blossom of a deeper meaning.
This physical dance sparks an energetic exchange
It creates a power and beauty, so strong, so pure.
Without it we betray our souls and our bodies.

Biography

Born in Trentino in 1979, Claudio Gobber grew up in the magnificent valleys of Primiero and Vanoi. Inspired by the work of Trentino and South Tyrolean artists from a young age, with Riccardo Schweizer being the foremost among them, art has always been his Yin, while business was his Yang. He recognises himself as a sculptor, painter, photographer, and designer with a passion for new technologies.

After a period of studying in Milan, where he obtained a bachelor's degree and a master's degree in Advertising, he moved to London, where he lived for 10 years. During his time in London he was immersed in the world of photography, practicing the teachings of his photographer grandfather. This modern adventure was accompanied by regular sessions in the mountain studio where he continued to paint and sculpt.

More recently he has been working in Trentino, where alongside numerous acrylic works, a recent inclination towards creating clay sculptures has emerged. His art is strongly influenced by the digital works emerging from the Crypto movement, such as NFTs by international emerging artists, with a particular interest in the use of Generative Art software.

His artistic journey has encompassed both traditional techniques and digital experimentation, fueled by curiosity. He is constantly exploring various art forms. His aim is to push the boundaries of his creativity, producing aesthetically pleasing and conceptually stimulating works. His hope is to produce creations that evoke emotions, inspire reflection, and offer a unique perspective on the world around us.

His art has been exhibited in various national and international shows, and his work has been well received by diverse audiences. He continues to nurture his passion for art and seek new ways to express his creativity.
